

Richard Levin

March 27, 1953 - October 23, 2008

Richard “Butch” Levin was born on March 27, 1953 in Princeton, Minnesota to Neil and Margaret (South) Levin. With his Shepherd, Be-Bop by his side, Butch enjoyed being outdoors hunting and fishing. The many gifts relatives and friends received of drawings and items fashioned of wood reflected not only his generosity but also his talent as an artist. When not being where needed, antiquing, collecting agates, and adding to his license plate collection was how Butch liked to spend his time.

Butch is survived by his parents, Neil & Margaret Levin of Onamia, MN; daughter, Cassie Levin of AZ; sisters, Sharon Levin of Onamia, MN, Barb Schug & husband, Tim of Isle, MN, Kim Peterson & husband, Dan of Isle, MN; nieces & nephews, Marty (Stephanie), Donnie (Nikki), Quentin (Tiffany), & Mary Margaret; great-nieces & nephews, Elizabeth, Amiee, Mariah, Rease, Tate, Mason, & Abby.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Troy & Helen South, Lloyd & Martine Kuhlmann.
