“ To the Sahr Family

Wanted to express my condolences to your family and wanted to say a few words regarding the type of father who supports his son in his Boy Scouting career to have him achieve the highest rank a Scout can earn the Rank of Eagle Scout. I have known Luke for many years on the Garrison Fire Dept and I know that behind every Eagle Scout is a set of parents and usually a Father who wants only the best for his son. He demonstrates in his personal life all the traits that he hopes his son will follow and will learn from. I have never met Luke's father but I know that day that the Eagle Rank was pinned on Luke's Boy Scout Uniform must have been one of the most proudest moments in his life.
