Rita was born on May 6, 1919 in Buckman to Margaret (Zenner) and John Dehler. It was through her large family and German heritage that she learned how to work hard and have a strong faith. She loved milking cows, gardening, canning, cooking, quilting, embroidery, dancing to old time music, and playing cards. Rita had a very generous heart and cared for family and friends whenever she could. When Rita was in her late 70's, she started volunteering at the Pierz Villa, "pushing the old people" in wheelchairs to mass and leading the rosary in the chapel there.

“ Stumpf family, my condolences on the passing of Rita. Walter and Rita were one of our best neighbors to visit and be around. I remember the summers when we would go from farm to farm thrasing grain and those huge dinner meals. Your mom was in the kitchen giving instructions to all on what needed to be done. Many fond memories.
