Thank you for the fitting tribute! That was as beautiful, as the smile Bob always had on his face when he was with his kids and his family.

*What a great tribute, loved seeing all the photos, the smile on Bob's face when with his family, kids. Fond memory popped up recently when we drove down Turnigan Arm to watch for sheep here in anchorage. Much Love and hugs!

“ I have been blessed to know Bob and have him as part of my family!. I love and will miss him. God grant peace to family and friends during this time, but know that he gave so many people happiness during his life. Bob's spirit will live on through his children, grandchildren, family and friends. You will not be forgotten.

Rest in peace, brother Bob!
