That video was great, treasure his memories. I still remember him as Little Bobby (aka) Little Joe which we called him back in the day, he would get Judy and Bev so mad I still can see him coming down those stairs and saying "MOM" do you now what their going to do? And him playing softball with softball with both my husband and my ex. and many more great memories of Bobbie. Love to you and his sisters (Judy and Florence)

Yet another life in this family ended all too soon because of alcohol or cigarettes. It is tragic. It is heart wrenching to all who have lost their parent to these two addictions, in this family. So many dead.....so young.

Bobby was a very big part of my life growing up. He was, as a boy, a fun and silly gentle soul. I recall the beautiful art he produced, the blessing of seeing the beauty in this world and transposing that to paper. He shared that talent with his sister Rosie who was given a full scholarship to college based upon her art skills.....but, alas, neither would go on to create a life centered upon those gifts.

As I look at the photos of those with whom I shared my growing up years, all the brothers and sisters of Bobbie, I am in tears. All those lives cut short.

RIP Bob.
