“ I have known very few people that had the breadth and depth of knowledge that Bob held in memory. I so appreciated his willingness to share that knowledge and could listen to it as long as he cared to talk about it. I regret not having spent more time with him of late. I will miss him. - Jayme Johnson

“ *I have fond memories of Bobby and his mother Mae. They were neighbors to my husband and I when we were first married. Enjoyed visiting with them and they would enjoy when I would ride bike over with my kids for a visit.

“ Every morning for the last three months I have had the pleasure of chatting with Bob and listening to his stories of when he was younger growing up on a farm. Bob loved riding his Harley and Bob's most treasured item was his cane that a friend made from a diamond willow tree from his farm. Bob will be missed. I'm thankful he is at peace.

“ What a great guy Bob was, I am so happy to have met him and care for him at times. He just told me on Sunday morning “if you get mad just swear that’s what I do” Rest In Peace buddy
