“ To All of Roberta's Family and Roger M.; I am so saddened to read that my friend passed. My deepest sympathy to you all. I live in the same apartment building that she lived in when she lived in Little Falls. She was a dear friend and so kind and faithful to Jesus. He has her in his arms now and she has no more pain. God bless her memory and May perpetual light shine upon her. God Bless You All.

Roberta was very sweet. She was a very faithful person. She happily filled in for adoration hours before she became ill. She is at peace now, in Jesus' arms. Thoughts and prayers are with Roberta's family.

Though I didn't know her, I am sorry to hear of a Schmolke cousin passing at such an early age. May you all find comfort in remembering all the good things about her life.
