

Rodney Strom

July 18, 1954 - January 27, 2010

Rodney R. Strom was born on July 18, 1954 in Little Falls, MN, to the late Joseph and Gloria (Kris) Strom. He attended the schools in Little Falls. Rodney enjoyed traveling around the U.S. on the trains with his brother, Larry. Together, they would work on different fruit and vegetable farms, making enough money to move on and see other parts of the country. Rodney had a passion for collecting Native American artifacts and memorabilia during his travels. He loved nature, spending much of his time outdoors. Rodney played basketball and enjoyed watching sports. He also enjoyed working on crossword puzzles, playing cribbage and other card games, reading, and spending time with family and friends.

Rodney is survived by his brother, Brian Strom of Sartell, MN; sister, Lynn Doege of Little Falls; nephews, Bob Doege and Brad (Madonna) Doege, both of Little Falls; great niece and nephews, Kurtis, Robin, and Randy Doherty; many aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Adolph and Fedelise Strom; grandparents, Harry and Irene Kris; parents, Joseph & Gloria Strom; brothers, Ronnie and Larry Strom.

“ My brother, Rodney, endured much pain and suffering during his life. Through his surgeries, Rodney fought through the pain with vigor and determination just to get well. Rod's fight and the heart he has shown should be an inspiration to everyone. Rodney and I had countless memories and good times together. I'll miss him dearly.
