Roman A. Meyer was born to Michael and Catherine (Stalpes) Meyer on March 29, 1926 in Hillman Township, Morrison County. He grew up on the family farm and attended District 97 school through the 8th grade and then worked on the family farm until 1950. He was united in marriage to Marie Theis on June 21, 1949 in St. Michael's Church in Buckman, MN. They purchased a farm in Benton County in March of 1950 and continued to live on the farm until June of 2012. Roman played baseball from 1940-1950. He hauled milk to the Little Rock Creamery from 1950-1995. Roman was a member of St. Joseph's Parish in Morrill, MN where he was a cemetery board member and an usher in the church for many years. He was a lifetime member of the Knights of Columbus. Roman was an avid bowler, bowling in the Knights of Columbus State Tournaments for several years, and winning first place in all events in 1990. He really enjoyed playing chess and many different card games. Roman taught his grandchildren many of these games. At first he won most of the games but then he figured he taught them how to play too well when he started to lose most of the time. He also enjoyed playing croquet and horse shoes. After retirement he took great pride in taking care of his garden, especially his strawberry patch and he continued to help his daughter, son-in-law and neighbors with seasonal field work. He also trapped many gophers for his neighbors.

Roman is survived by his loving wife, Marie; children, Neil (Carolyn) Meyer of St. Cloud, MN, Loren (Janel) Meyer of Pierz, MN, Jeanne (Dick) Knopik of Little Falls, MN, and Julie (Bob) Kummet of Lastrup, MN; Grandchildren, Shannon Meyer, Lori (Cory) Guggenberger, Luke (Jessica) Meyer, Lisa (Kevin) Smude, Eric (Emily) Knopik, Kevin (Rachel) Knopik, Brian (Becky) Kummet, Justin (fiancé, Cassie Cohn), Brandon and Shana Meyer; great grandchildren, Allie Meyer, Kaitlyn, Joey and Nora Smude, Joshua Knopik, Garrett Guggenberger, Taylor and Hannah Kummet; one brother Gerald (Corrine) Meyer; sisters-in-law, Ellen Akotchik and Jeanette Meyer.

Roman was preceded in death by his parents, Michael and Catherine Meyer, an infant sister, brothers, Cletus (Deloria) Meyer and Ervin Meyer; brothers-in-law Claude (Carol) Theis and John Akotchik.

Arrangements are with the Shelley –Virnig Funeral Chapel in Pierz MN
