

Rose A. Miller

December 26, 1909 - November 25, 2008

Rose A. Miller was born on December 26, 1909 in Sartell, MN to William & Bertha (Mathies) Traut. She was married to Leonard Miller. They lived and farmed near Little Falls. With her entrepreneurial spirit, she started, owned and operated the Miller Duck and Goose Hatchery. Her business grew to international status. She was a member of the Christian Mothers, Minnesota Goose Growers Association (of which she was also president), Farmer's Union, and St. Mary's Altar Society.

Rose is survived by her sons, Donald (Adeline) Miller, Kenneth (Jeanette) Miller, Leo Miller, and Gerard (Vicki) Miller; daughter-in-law, Betty Miller; daughters, Doris (Gib) Bromenschenkel, Frances (Ted) Thoma, Rose Ann Magnan, Marilyn (Jerry) Kapsner, and Ann Marie (Jim) Maciej; sister Frances Fruth; 39 grandchildren, 68 great grandchildren, and 2 great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Leonard Miller, husband, Andrew Banach; son, Robert A. Miller; infant daughter, Marie; brothers, Anton, Joseph, Martin, and Edward Traut; sisters, Elizabeth Nolden and Mary Then.

Pallbearers will be Linda Connell, Thomas K. Miller, Michelle Saunders, Jay Bromenschenkel, Jr., Todd Kapsner, Gary Miller and Josh Miller.

We are very grateful to the fine people of Harmony House who assisted her in many ways, so she could live out her life in dignity.

“ They say there are angels on this earth masquerading as people. My grandmother, Rose, was certainly one of them. She had a way of making everone she met feel welcome and special. She was a great example for all of us and I will miss her dearly.##imported-begin##Kathy Ayre##imported-end##
