“ Ross and I go back over 50 years. A person could not ask for a better friend, and if someone needed help, just ask, and he was there. We had a lot of wild and crazy times together, and being friends this long, I have lots of memories with Ross. I will touch on a few: Duluth, Boundry Waters, ice fishing, pheasant and crow hunting, and deer hunting, especially when he harvested a nice buck below my cabin, he was hooked again on deer hunting, and he harvested lots of deer after that. You will be missed, but you will be greeted with open arms by Nadine, your Mom and Dad, and Deanne. Rest in peace my friend. John Tchida.

“ My favorite things about Ross, the many years I knew him, when we happened to meet every once in awhile, we're his remarkable but unassuming intelligence, his apparent and constant compassion, as well as showing genuine interest in me (and all others I imagine) and a hearty laughter that was great fun to hear. He was just excellent!!!
