Ruth was born in St. Paul on January 1, 1923 to Mabel and Arthur Olson. She was a graduate of Roosevelt High School in Minneapolis and the University of MN where she majored in Journalism and participated in the marching band. She worked for Sears Roebuck & Co. for many years and while working out of their Chicago office, met Peter Bruske of Stevens Point, WI. They were married in Minneapolis in 1952. For most of their married life, Ruth, Peter and their sons Craig and Mark lived on Twin Lake in Crystal MN, a wonderful location for raising boys and enjoying the outdoors. Ruth was an avid reader, collector of decorative silver and enameled spoons, and made staying connected with family and friends, a priority. Among her greatest joys was spending time with her grandchildren, Briana and Carly. In 2005, Ruth and Peter sold their lake home and moved to Isle, MN. They enjoyed traveling, especially in Minnesota where they visited all 64 state parks. Even as Ruth's health began to deteriorate, they would visit Father Hennepin State Park to look to the white deer. Trips like these reminded her of Sunday drives when she was young. She is survived by husband, Peter; sons Craig and Mark, daughter-in-law, Becky; granddaughter, Briana, and her sister, June Craig.

She was preceded in death by her parents and granddaughter, Carly.
