Tribute Wall

“ This is a tribute to my beloved ♡♡"Grandma Sue"♡♡
Susan M. Shingobe, Bebaamashiikwe—a radiant spirit of our people, a proud Ojibwe Elder from the Mille Lacs Band. At ninety-three years, she peacefully journeyed beyond this world, leaving behind a legacy woven with love, wisdom, and tradition that will forever live in my heart.

Her life was a testament to living in harmony with all of creation—an unyielding respect for the natural world she held sacred. She believed that every element, from the shimmering lake to the whispering trees and gentle grass, holds a spirit. Her teachings reminded us that honoring these spirits is to honor the Creator’s sacred design, a lesson she shared with unwavering humility.

She embodied kindness, patience, and reverence—values she imparted through her words and actions. Her voice often echoed the simple yet profound truth: “Even the lake has a spirit.” These words continue to resonate, reminding us of our deep connection to the Earth and all living things.

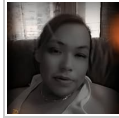

Her presence was a gift—her laughter, wisdom, and gentle strength filling our lives with love and guidance. The memories she created and the lessons she passed down are treasures I will cherish forever. Though she has moved on to the next world, her spirit remains alive in the sacred teachings she shared and the love she gave so freely.

I miss her dearly, but I am forever grateful for her influence. I promise to honor her legacy by living with respect, carrying forward her knowledge, and sharing her sacred teachings with those who come after me.

May her spirit continue to watch over us. And may we always remember the beautiful life of Bebaamashiikwe—our cherished Ojibwe elder, our beloved grandmother, whose love and wisdom will never fade.
