“ Travis you will be greatly missed. We are very lucky to have had the honor to know you. You are a very smart, funny and lovely person. You have a sense of humor that no one will every be able to match. I remember on league the grin that you would get on your face with our team was bowling yours and you would continue to get strike after strike and we would sneak up behind and pretend to try to mess up your game. You would never say a word but just turn around, give that look with the grin. You will be in our hearts forever. We will miss forever. Kimberly##imported-begin##Shropshire Family##imported-end##
