“ There's never a day that goes by, that I don't think of you, ty. You were an amazing friend.. & I'm so blessed that I got to spend a week with you before you left us.. I just wish there was something I could have done.. Or said.. I miss you more then words can describe.. You'll always be in my heart. I'm also blessed to have all the memories I have with you.. Spending time at my grandma's on the raft is probably one of my favorites. I would give anything to be able to do that one more time.. We all always had so much fun together.. You were the life of the party.. Always making everyone smile. You had such a great heart. <3 I'll be in the cities tomorrow.. Hopefully i'll be able to make a stop and visit you.<3 I love you, Tyler Grant.. Until we meet again.. <3

“ Words cannot describe this great loss we have come to. Tyler, I haven't really known you previously, but now i feel like I know you more than when I acknowledged you. My only apology to you was that our last encounter was akward. And even though our last encounter was awkward, I knew you were a great guy beyond that. You had a warming smile that never left your face, but it was contagious because you made me smile every time. I wish I had taken an opportunity of getting to know to you more and that is one regret I have to live with through the rest of my days. You will truly be missed Tyler. Your bright smile will be in our thoughts, but your soul will be forever warm in our hearts.

“ For the family,
Psalms 94:14 says "When anxieties overwhelmed me, You comforted and soothed me." As you deal with this numbing anxiety of the death of Tyler, notice that our Creator is able and willing to comfort and soothe all of you. This is especially important now with losing one who was so dear to everyone. Please allow him to do this for you as you read his promises for all of us in his word @ Revelation 21:3,4 & Isaiah 25:8. For more comforting truths please examine www.jw.org for real hope for our loved ones.

“ Little Baldwins future looked bright from the moment I saw him smile. Life may not give us the longest of wick but will give us the shine to touch so many peoples lives. Tyler did just that, he touched so many lives with his bright wick. Always in our memories and in our hearts.
