

Vivian Grams

November 15, 1918 - March 12, 2011

Vivian was born November 15, 1918 in Rosehill Township, Cottonwood County, MN to the late Nickolas and Ida (Hanson) Glasshoff. She grew up in Rosehill Township and attended District #48 country school. Vivian was united in marriage to Lester E. Grams on December 5, 1936 in Westbrook, MN. The couple resided in the town of Westbrook for a few years. Then they moved and farmed for 16 years just outside of Westbrook, MN.. In 1958, they purchased a farm in Swanville Township in Morrison County, MN. Vivian was employed at Crestliner Boats in Little Falls and later at Larson Boats until retiring in 1980. Since 2007, she has resided in Arlington, MN to be near her son, Darrell. Vivian enjoyed growing flowers and always had a garden. She also thoroughly enjoyed visits with her grandchildren. She was a great cook, liked baking pies, canning and blue berry picking. Fishing with Vivian was always a great memory for her family. She bowled on the Long Prairie senior bowling league for years and volunteered at the Upsala Senior Center whenever she could. Vivian was a member of Gethsemane Lutheran Church in Upsala, MN.

She is survived by her sons, LeMoine (Lois) Grams of Hutchinson, MN, and Darrell (Shirley) Grams of Green Isle, MN; daughter, LaVonne (Lloyd) Solarz of Hackensack, MN; 10 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and one great great grandson. Vivian was preceded in death by her husband, Lester E. Grams on August 1, 1990; parents; three brothers, two sisters and a granddaughter, Lisa Solarz.

Casket bearers will be Darrell Grams Jr., Todd Grams, April Grams, Bradley Grams, Aaron Grams, and Lloyd Solarz Jr.
