“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family of SFC Bill Bly. I just recently found out about his untimely death. Bill was a good friend of mine who I met while attending a military school at Camp Ripley Minnesota. He will certainly be missed by his family and friends. If any of his family happens to read this, I would like to hear from them. My name is George Moore, and I live in Texas. Please contact me here.

Thank you, and God Bless.
