“ What a wonderful and strong women. I have such wonderful memories Of Auntie Yvonne she always made me feel special. She was the only one who called me bobby. She was always smiling and offering to help out anyone. Last summer I got to visit with Auntie in rehabilitation in Princeton and then again at Aunti Lavonnes home, even though she was in pain she was smiling and laughing . I am so greatful all her sisters were able to spend a wonderful day together last summer with family. I will miss her and her warm heart and contagious laugh. love you auntie

“ We all know that Grandma was a caring person. I thought I would share a memory that made me laugh. One day when Grandpa and Grandma were visiting she asks "Clinter can you take me on a three-wheeler ride?" I respond with "sure." So we go on a short ride and as we are driving past the group of people at our house I pull a wheelie and ride by everyone. I don't think I have ever heard her scream so loud in my life. She was scared and a little displeased with me and called me a few choice names. Everyone was laughing ecspecially Grandpa. When all was said and done I apologized and she says "I can't stay mad at you." We all miss youand love you very much. Give Grandpa a big hug for me and tell him I'm sorry for telling you he had whores for his boat. I love you Grandma and Grandpa.

“ Grandma was one of a kind! Always said back straight, shoulders back, and chest out! When I was younger she gave me a pair of silver fish earrings. Every time I wore them fishing I would smoke the competition. Still have them and are still good luck. I love you grandma! Tell grandpa hi and cook those fish like you always have!! See you in time

“ My Grandma was one hell of a lady. I have so many memories of her and each one is special. Here are 10 of my favorite.

1. First and foremost, she made the BEST butter and sugar sandwiches!
 2. She would make me eat goulash even when I said I didn't like it. She'd tell me to "shut up Lori Beth, you ate it all the time when you were little" (yep - didn't like it then either Gram's LOL).
 3. When she met Shane, she loved him instantly, I new I found a great catch.
 4. She always called her women friends her "lady friends". I use that term now too!
 5. She called me (& everyone she loved) Baby Doll.
 6. She never passed judgement on you - she loved you no matter what.
 7. She loved my boys, simply because they were my boys.
 8. She made you feel like you were the most important person in the world to her when you were with her.
 9. She was fiercely loyal to her family, and would hold a grudge to anyone who did one of her Baby Dolls wrong.
 10. She was simply amazing in every way, shape and form.
- Those are just some of the things I will always remember about Grandma. She was one great lady. She helped teach me that family is number 1 and to enjoy life. Always made me feel special, beautiful and proud. I will miss you Grandma, more than you know. I will think of you often, and I will continue on the saying of "I about shit rubber nickles". Because after all, it is one of the best sayings I have ever heard!!!

Mom was the most loveable, giving, caring, kindhearted, women I have ever known. She wasn't only our mom/grandma she was mom to her children friends, grandma to her grandchildrens friends, she was everybodys mom/grandma thats the kind of person she was. She will be cherished by many. As mom would say:

If you can only remember the sad memories, don't remember at all.
ALWAYS AND FOR EVER IN OUR HEART

“ I remember when Grandma and Grandpa managed Seguchies and Grandma was cooking, the song Tennessee Flat Top Box came on- she came out of the kitchen and she started dancing and made me dance with her right in the middle of the lodge. That was so long ago and I still remember it like it was yesterday. I think of her and that moment every time I hear that song. We danced like nobody was watching.

“ Auntie Yvonne was always so kind to me from the very beginning; I don't think I can even specify a single moment; every moment with auntie Yvonne was great! I guess a more humorous memory took place at last years Haugen family reunion; all the sisters were sitting together for photos when somebody made a comment along the lines of "Who needs a man" or something along those lines. When auntie Yvonne shot up her had stating "I do!" I even got a picture of that exact moment... I love you soooo much auntie! You will always have the most special place in my heart; we love you so much!

“ There are so many things I would love to share about my Gram, but one of the most important to me is the way she ALWAYS made me feel like I was her favorite, never ever did she criticize me for my looks or my choices, always said I was the most beautiful thing she ever saw, inside and out. That is what a Gramma is supposed to do, even if she told all my other cousins the same thing, she truly always made me feel that way. When I become a grandma, I will try my hardest to try to be the best Gram like I had for 33 years. I love you Gram, Love Always and Forever, your Baby Doll... Lisa Rae

“ My fondest memory of grandma is seeing her getting excited to see me when I would go and visit her. & of course her calling me(& everyone else), Baby Doll. Also her hugs.... Grandma gave the best hugs. There is so much more I could say, but I am just going to say.... I am going to miss her.

Brooke Englund - May 28, 2013 at 12:49 PM

“ She was always there to listen and a shoulder to cry on. We use to sit for hours playing cards, cribbage and counting railroad cars. She New what to say to you. I am gonna miss her so much. I will never forget the look on her face when I told her I was gonna have my first baby. She the same look every time I told her I was gonna have a baby and she always said they looked like me. She told that you proved the doctors wrong now. I remember one day she said to that she like my bondholders so I went to my parents house and I took them off and walked right back to my uncle's place and gave them to her. I will always love and miss her so much. RIP AUNTYLOVE YOU. YOU ARE THE SHINE TO SUN.
